

Say to Henry the E.A. pamphlets are quite exhausted Smeal has now remaining give up his membership in the E.A., than not hold Communion with this man - I hope you & Thompson, Hy Knight & Douglas will repose such infamous sentiments -

Wish all well, best regards to Henry & Fred:

Yours faithfully
Andrew Paton

Wm L Garrison
at Dublin meeting of Ex. Allied men at Aylesbury, Sir C. E. Smith repeatedly expressed his belief that Christians might in "Spite of them ever be unwilling participants in Slavery" also be Slaveholders & hold of one of the most useful members of the E. A. being a partner & Director of a Brazilian mine wrought by Slaves the property of the Company, the good man was sending out a Missionary & Sir C. E. Smith wd rather

Glasgow 6th Oct 1846

My Dear Sir

In packing up you left yr dressing gown behind, I will send it by tomorrows steamer to Liverpool, addressed to care of Mr Brown The Pierhead Hotel Clayton Sqr. where I suppose you will have occasion to call as you pass to Manchester -

Yours Glasgow Argus had a very good report of yr first meeting in Glasgow - a copy was sent you, - I hope you have seen the London Patriot of 1st inst. it reports a